JUSTICE CENTER
SALT LAKE COUNTY

The Utah Jazz is teaming up with the Children's Justice Center in Salt Lake County. Come by Larry H. Miller Chevrolet at 5500 S State Street to help show your support as well.

Come drop off one of the following items: Stuffed Animals, Lap Size Fleece Blankets, Coloring and Activity books, Pre-Packaged snacks for kids, Brownie, Cookie, Cake and Muffin mixes! When you donate, you will be entered into a drawing for a pair of Jazz vs. Lakers Suite tickets on 4/1/11. We'll have our hoop out so you can show off your basketball skills and you'll also be able to meet Jeremy Evans and get his autograph.

Why should we donate?

Statistics indicate that you may know, or be related to, a victim of child sexual abuse. One in four children will experience sexual abuse during their childhood. Children can heal from most physical injuries caused by abuse, but the emotional scars can last a lifetime. Immediate intervention by trained experts has demonstrated a remarkable improvement in the emotional adjustment of child victims. The Children's Justice Center serves a vital role in advocating for the best interest of children to ensure their protection, to promote justice, and link to families with quality medical and counseling services.

At the Children's Justice Center, all of our services are free, at no cost to the child victim or family. This would not be possible without the help of contributions from the community to support programming, child advocacy services, crisis intervention services, parent education materials, and specialized training for investigators.

We rely on community donations to support the program. Your tax-deductible contribution would be used wisely to help us provide a safe, comfortable place for our clients to share details about a frightening experience that could possibly change their lives forever. Help us tame the trauma caused by child abuse.

Please, come join our partnership and donate to help children in need. Just pop by Larry H. Miller Chevrolet Murray at 550 S. State Street to give you contribution. We, and the children, appreciate anything you are willing to give.
